

MENTION WILSON AS CANDIDATE IF 'LINK' WON'T RUN

But Democratic Committeeman Says Would Not Be in Race for Delegateship

With the Democratic ratification rally and the primaries campaign close at hand, L. L. "Link" McCandless has not yet announced himself as a candidate for the delegateship, and indications are, should the Bourbon war horse decline to run this fall, National Committeeman John H. Wilson will be the choice of his party for the race.

This is the gist of political talk in Pauahi street these days, but Wilson is noncommittal regarding what the future may bring with regard to the Democratic candidate for delegate. From an interview today it might appear that he is in a receptive mood, although inclined to wait until he hears of McCandless' stand before announcing himself.

Wilson says he could not afford to run for delegate.

"It takes money, you know," he says. While many Democrats say McCandless will be in the running this fall, there are others inclined to believe he will not. If McCandless does not run, what man have the Democrats to put forward? Is the question which just now is bothering the majority. Wilson cannot answer this question. He says so himself. But he will not admit that he is figuring on being a candidate if McCandless does not come forward.

Who will be who in the Democratic campaign at the primaries will be made known at the big ratification rally at Aala park on the evening of September 9. On this occasion both the national and local Bourbon platforms will be ratified; a large number of speakers, not yet selected, will voice the sentiments of the Hawaii party as regards the national administration, and candidates for the senate and house will each be given a few minutes to make themselves known.

The date of the rally was changed for the reason that by being held on September 9 it will come two days after nominations have closed, and the central committee will know who the various candidates are.

In the ninth precinct of the fifth district the voters have recognized the following persons as candidates for nomination as representatives:

D. M. Kuphea, Jesse E. Makainai, Joseph Kalama, Robert Ahuna, Frank C. Benevides, and William Miles. Charles Kaula and Joseph Kaimama have been recommended as judges of election.

Other possibilities for the house from the fifth district are John K. Mokuama, E. J. Gay, W. F. Moesman and J. H. K. Kawaheku, brother of the once politically famous Gabriel Kawaheku.

Thus far, seven possibilities have been discovered for the house in the fourth district. They are Crane Almeida, William P. St. Clair, J. M. Bright, Robert Kaiwi, Jesse Ululhi, editor of Aloha Aina; J. W. Kelki and E. H. F. Wolter.

Candidates for senators, thus far as advice have been received in Pauahi street, will be Ambrose Wirtz and Archie Robertson from the fourth district, and Edward Hanapi and Horace N. Crabbe from the fifth district.

From Hawaii comes the news that J. N. Kamoku will be a candidate for the house from the second district. This is the only bit of political information thus far received from the outside islands.

ELEPHANT WILL COMPLETE ZOO FOR THIS CITY

Honolulu's zoo will be complete when the elephant purchased by subscription arrives. That is, it will have all of the usual animals—an elephant, monkeys, a bear and deer. Every zoo must have them before it can be called a zoo.

There must be other animals, of course, and Honolulu has these, too. Here is the complete list: Three tigers, 2 monkeys, 1 bear cub, a raccoon, a turtle, 2 emus, 4 deers, 2 cranes, 4 swans, 2 Cape Barren geese, 13 mandarin ducks, 9 peafowl and a number of guinea hens.

Practically the entire zoo has been acquired by donation during the last 13 months. Supervisor Ben Hollinger, chairman of the park committee, has been very active in soliciting gifts and every wealthy friend of the city who goes to the mainland bears with him a request to be sure and bring back a gift for the zoo.

A friend met a cheerful Irish citizen who had plainly suffered some hard knocks.

"Well, Pat, how are you getting along now?" he inquired.

"Oh, Oh'm hard up yet; but Oi have a fine job in Honolulu, and fare paid. Oi sail to-morrow."

"Sure, man, you'll never be able to work there. The temperature is a 100 in the shade."

Pat had endured too much cheerfulness to be discouraged.

"Well," he replied, hopefully, "Oi'll not be worrukin' in th' shade all th' toime."—Weekly Scotsman.

HONOLULU SUGGESTED FOR WORLD-PEACE CONFERENCE

New York Financial Organ Urges Unique Advantage of Cross-Roads of Pacific for Important Tribunal

Daily Financial America, under date of August 7, 1916, suggests to the Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu that Honolulu, capital of the Territory of Hawaii, midway between possessions held by the more powerful nations of the world, is a logical situation for an international tribunal, and this opinion is voiced by pacifists who have already visited the city to better determine its advantages.

It is argued that Honolulu, through its splendid ocean transportation facilities, its proximity to several important capitals of the world, is admirably adapted as a meeting place for those designated in later years to participate in a series of conferences leading to a lasting world peace. Honolulu is within easy steaming distance of the American mainland, as well as the coasts of Siberia, Japan, China, the Dutch Netherlands, the Indian Peninsula and Australasia. It has regular steamship communication with the more important points on the west coast and is on the direct Panama canal route of Central and South America.

A revival of a discussion of plans for a big peace conference to be held at a central and neutral point followed the visit of several diplomats representing the Allied and Central Powers to Honolulu, who are said to have been favorably impressed with the possibilities offered by the city as a second "Hague Tribunal."

Secretary Brown of the chamber of commerce said today that the suggestion is of immediate interest and will be given appreciative consideration.

The investigations were started shortly before Chairman Forbes left for the mainland on his vacation. The commission's meeting is at 2 o'clock in its rooms on the fourth floor of the Kaukoani building, King street.

Ashmun, of 1018 Sixth avenue, who has been on Hawaii for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. White spent some time at Lake Tahoe and on their return, went to Del Monte for a week or two. Mrs. Grace Fisk Billings, Mrs. White's sister, has been staying at the White residence during their absence, but will return to the Hotel Shattuck on their return.

GAMBLING CASE LIKE FORMER ONE IS TAKEN HIGHER

Determined to permanently close the Hotel street place where over 100 Chinese suspected of gambling have been arrested in the last month, Arthur McDuffie's detective squad arrested 36 men there Saturday night and secured their conviction in the police court this morning. A fine of $15 each was assessed and the case appealed by the defendants' attorney, Lorrin Andrews.

The formal charge against the Chinese was being in a barricaded place where gambling apparatus was exposed to view. Detective Sergeant John Kallet and Detective Swift testified breaking down a heavy door, the only means of entrance to the place, of seeing a Chinese watchman behind it and of finding the defendants in heavily barred rooms in which was gambling equipment.

Andrews applauded the concerted efforts of the judge and the police to break up gambling in Honolulu, but held that in this case the policemen had no right to break down the door without a warrant for arrest; that the checkers taken were not part of a gambling game and that there was no evidence of gambling.

Prosecuting Attorney Chillingworth laid particular stress upon the heavy door with peephole and watchman's seat. Testimony showed that it was pried from its hinges with a heavy crowbar taken for that purpose.

Preceding his decision of guilty, Judge Monsarrat explained that today's case was similar to the celebrated Garden - Chillingworth - Ness case, in which he had found the defendants guilty and which was also appealed and is still pending. The judge said that there was more incriminating evidence of gambling in the present case and that in order to be consistent he must necessarily find the 36 defendants guilty.

The judge expressed the hope that some time in the higher court the question of what constituted gambling paraphernalia and whether a policeman had the right to batter down a door without first securing a warrant would be finally settled.

From the hundred-odd defendants arrested, convicted and fined for being in the Hotel street place the city an county government has already been put to considerable expense, but has not yet received a cent in penalties.

McDuffie says that several of this morning's defendants have been defendants in the two former trials.

DR. W. L. MOORE IS IMPROVING; BLOOD POISON

Dr. W. L. Moore, who has been ill at the Queen's hospital for the last week and who recently underwent an operation there, is reported today as being considerably improved. His temperature is low and he rested easily last night.

Dr. Moore was taken to the hospital with an infection of the right lung, the result of poisoning from the treatment of an erysipelas case. The infection later entered his right arm, necessitating an operation. Yesterday and Saturday the arm was treated with a strong saline bath, and it is now believed that the physician has passed the critical stage.

GERMANS TO QUIT BELGIUM FOR A PRICE, SAYS RUMOR

AMSTERDAM, Holland. — Posters are pasted on the walls of barracks in Ghent saying that negotiations have been opened between the United States and Germany for the evacuation of Belgium, according to the Echo Belge.

According to the posters Germany is prepared to withdraw from Belgium on the payment of an indemnity of 40,000,000,000 marks.

The Echo Belge comments sarcastically on this proposal, terming the proposed indemnity "a mere flea bite."

The cases of Campbell, Compton and Lord, accused of running their autos without properly frosted headlights, will be heard Tuesday in police court.

MAKEE MAY STOP HAULING FREIGHT ON ITS RAILWAY

Letter Gives Sugar Company's Side of Row; Utilities is to File Complaint

Transportation of freight from Kealia to Kapaa will be stopped by the Makee Sugar Company if the Interstate Commerce Commission classifies it as a common carrier. The public utilities commission will file a complaint with the interstate body to have a reasonable freight rate decided by a formal hearing.

These are the developments apparent in a letter received by the public utilities commission today from the interstate commission and made public by Chairman Charles R. Forbes of the territorial body.

"The company expresses no willingness to make any reduction in its rates," says the interstate's letter to the public utilities. "A full hearing is necessary to determine the reasonableness of its rates." The interstate encloses a copy of the process to be followed in making application for a hearing.

"We will probably file a complaint with the interstate Commerce Commission to have a hearing held," said Chairman Forbes at noon today. "The commission may detail us to act for it in holding the hearing, owing to the distance of Hawaii from Washington."

The interstate commerce body also encloses a copy of the report it received from Gaylord P. Wilcox, vice-president and manager of the Makee Sugar Company, giving the corporation's side of the case. In part Wilcox's letter says:

"The railroad is part of our plantation system. In no instance have we charged anyone more than is allowed us in the license, which has the approval of the governor of this territory."

"We do not desire to become a common carrier and if in your opinion we are classed as a common carrier we will be very glad to stop any transportation of merchandise or any other goods which make us a common carrier."

The company also contends that it has carried freight from Kealia to Kapaa, from its private wharf at Kealia, as a convenience to the merchants of Kapaa and not as a money-making proposition.

ARMY ORDERS OF INTEREST COME FROM MAINLAND

Official notification of the promotion of Capt. Charles G. Mettler, ordnance department, armament officer of the Hawaiian army district, to major, as printed in the Star-Bulletin Saturday, was received today by mail, in the shape of a war department order dated August 7, and detailing Capt. Mettler and two other ordnance department captains as majors.

Another order received by cable from Washington by the office of the depot quartermaster details Capt. Daniel H. Gentry, 4th Cavalry, to the Quartermaster corps, effective September 4, vice Capt. Charles W. Van Way, department paymaster, who becomes a major and returns to active service on that date.

'GO TO CHURCH' MOVEMENT WILL LAST ONE WEEK

Sermons By Doctor Brooks Result in Follow-Up Campaign By Two Associations

"Go to church Sunday!"

This will be the slogan of an advertising campaign to be waged this week by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. and cooperating churches, who intend to follow up in this way the results of the series of six Sunday night sermons delivered in the opera house by Rev. Raymond C. Brooks, the popular Berkeley, Cal., pastor.

The associations and churches intend to use the newspapers and small street billboards as mediums for their advertising, the idea being to urge greater attendance at the Methodist, Christian and Central Union churches.

At each Sunday night address in the opera house there was an average attendance of 250, it being noticed that many of those in attendance were not regular members of any church.

Nagao has been arrested and is in custody at the police station on a charge of stealing K. Takata's Ford auto at Aiea Saturday and running over and seriously injuring F. Tokichi, an employee on the Honolulu Plantation. For awhile the victim was not expected to live but telephone advice today from Deputy Sheriff Jack Fernandez, who made the arrest, tell of his recovery.

FOUR TEACHERS RESIGN; KINNEY TO FILL PLACES

Outside Pedagogues Will Be Given Opportunity to Teach in Honolulu

"The annual summer troubles of the department have begun," announced Henry W. Kinney, superintendent of public instruction, today, as he figured a pile of letters and wireless messages.

Superintendent Kinney explains that, with all the appointments of teachers for the coming year completed, belated resignations have begun to come in and, as a result, the department already has four vacancies to fill before school opens next month.

Those teachers whose resignations have been received are Miss Mollie Campbell of Kalulani, Miss Cecelia Black of Kalulani, Miss Constance Seymour of Central Grammar and Mrs. Emma Hottell of Central Grammar.

And I am very sorry to have to lose the last named teacher," commented Kinney as he finished giving out the names.

As a consequence, teachers who have qualified for appointment in Honolulu by giving a year of satisfactory service in the outside schools, will have a chance of being appointed here. Personal illness, or the illness of relatives, was the reason given by the resigning teachers for their action.

Superintendent Kinney hopes to fill the vacancies during the coming week, following a conference, whether in person or by correspondence, with the members of the school commission.

WOMAN ASSERTS RESENTMENT IS CAUSE OF ARREST

Wife of Restaurant Keeper Tells Story to the Civil Service Board

Testimony given by Chung Leo Shee, wife of a Chinese restaurant keeper at 648 North King street, is that her arrest on August 3 was made in a spirit of petty revenge. She took the witness stand at a hearing of the two officers making the arrest held by the Civil Service Commission Saturday afternoon.

She said that Theodore Ferdinand and Sam K. Ferreira, the two officers on trial, came into the restaurant the night before the arrest and ordered coffee and rolls. They used all the butter that went with the order, asked for more, and then objected when she asked for payment for the extra butter and left making threats of trouble for her, the woman said.

The next night they returned and after another demand for extra butter took her and the samples of butter from the restaurant to the police station, she testified. After a few words from the captain, during which the men were reprimanded for not making a proper investigation as to the condition of the butter, she was released.

Samples of the butter are said to have been sent to the board of health, but there has been no prosecution of the restaurant. Chung Leo Shee alleges that the butter she uses is good. Lee Young, a cook in the place, gave testimony substantially the same as hers. Then the hearing was adjourned until tonight.

Thirty-seven dealers in foodstuffs have been arrested in Bayonne, N. J., for failure to protect their goods from flies.

Great Britain's deficit for 1916-17 will be made good by borrowing an amount estimated at $6,615,525, Chancellor Reginald McKenna announced.
